Illustration of VITA/TCE Tax Return Quality Reviews

It is very important to understand that a smoother and faster Quality Review Process is primarily based on the proper steps being taken by every volunteer. If preparers follow the step-by-step procedures written in Publication 5101, Intake/Interview and Quality Review Training, for preparing a tax return, then the Quality Review Process will take less time. If these steps are not taken, site coordinators must educate the preparer immediately to reduce the time for conducting a quality review.

This publication provides an overview of how to review a tax return using TaxSlayer's Quality Review Print Set and should be used in conjunction with Publication 5299, VITA/TCE Quality Review Refresher. Historically, Quality Site Requirement (QSR) #2, Intake/Interview & Quality Review Process, has proven to be the most challenging QSR. To assist volunteers in understanding this critical QSR, SPEC created Publication 5299 to provide key points on the importance of the Quality Review Process and this publication to demonstrate a thorough quality review using TaxSlayer.

Generally, Quality Reviewers conduct reviews using:

- TaxSlayer's Master Print Set
- TaxSlayer's Quality Review Print Set (preferred)
- The step-by-step data entry process used by the preparer
- The Tax Return Summary Page, navigating to specific pages in tax preparation screens when necessary
- A printed copy of the tax return

If using the Master Print Set or the Quality Review Print Set, the Quality Reviewer can either review the PDF onscreen (recommended) or print a hardcopy. A review using the onscreen PDF is recommended and saves paper, especially if an error is found. The preferred method for quality review includes the use of the Quality Review Print Set. The example used in this publication is demonstrated using the Quality Review Print Set.

TaxSlayer's Quality Review Print Set

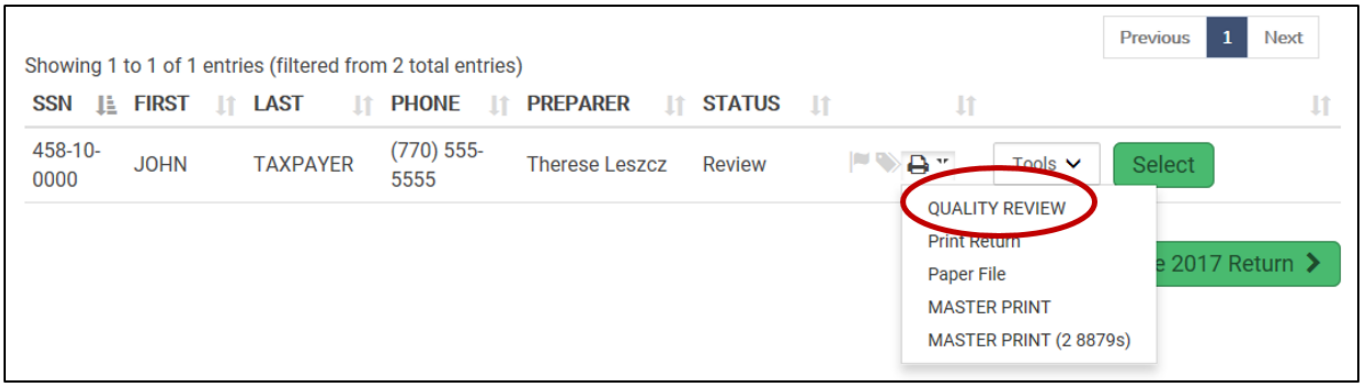

TaxSlayer's Quality Review Print Set is designed for reviewing a tax return. The Master Print Set does not contain everything included in the Quality Review Print Set.

The Quality Review Print Set includes necessary forms, schedules, and worksheets required to verify entries in TaxSlayer and identify tax law determinations.

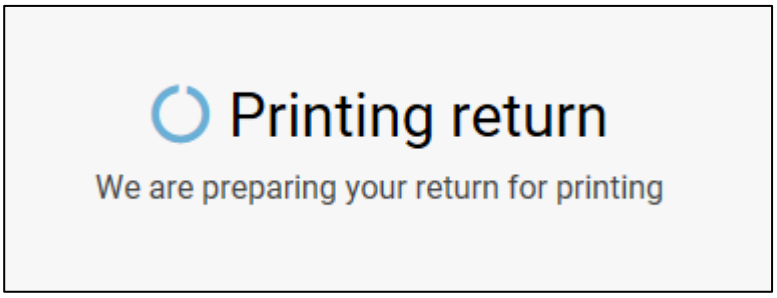

NOTE: The method chosen must comply with the Quality Review Process in Publication 5166, IRS Volunteer Quality Site Requirements and Publication 4012, Volunteer Resource Guide.

How to Access TaxSlayer's Quality Review Print Set

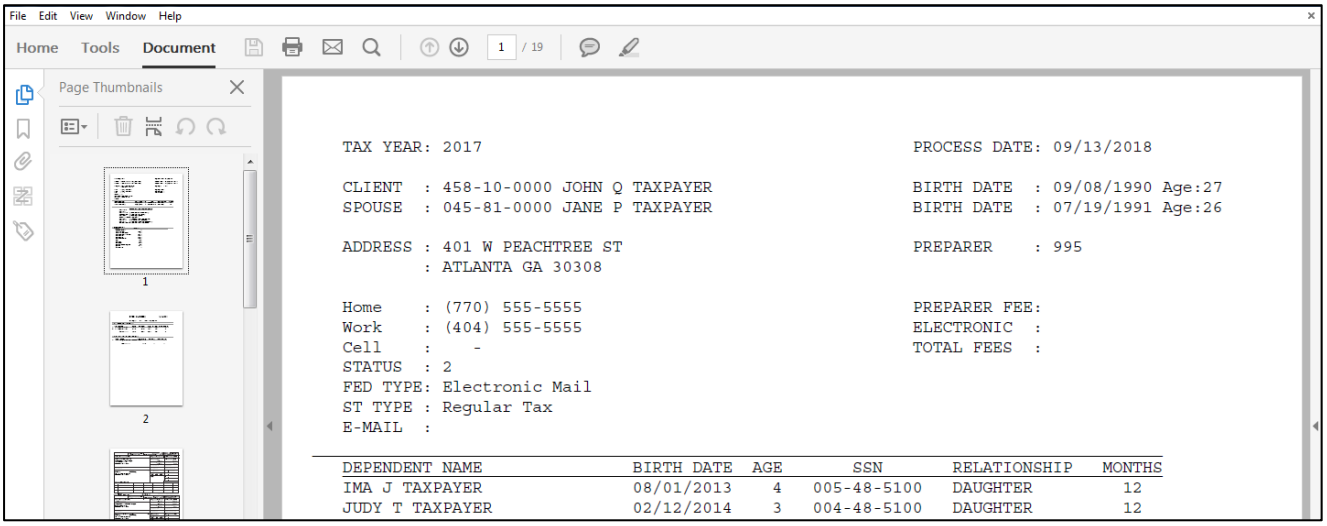

On the Office Client Sheet, click the arrows next to the printer icon  and select QUALITY REVIEW.

This screen will appear.

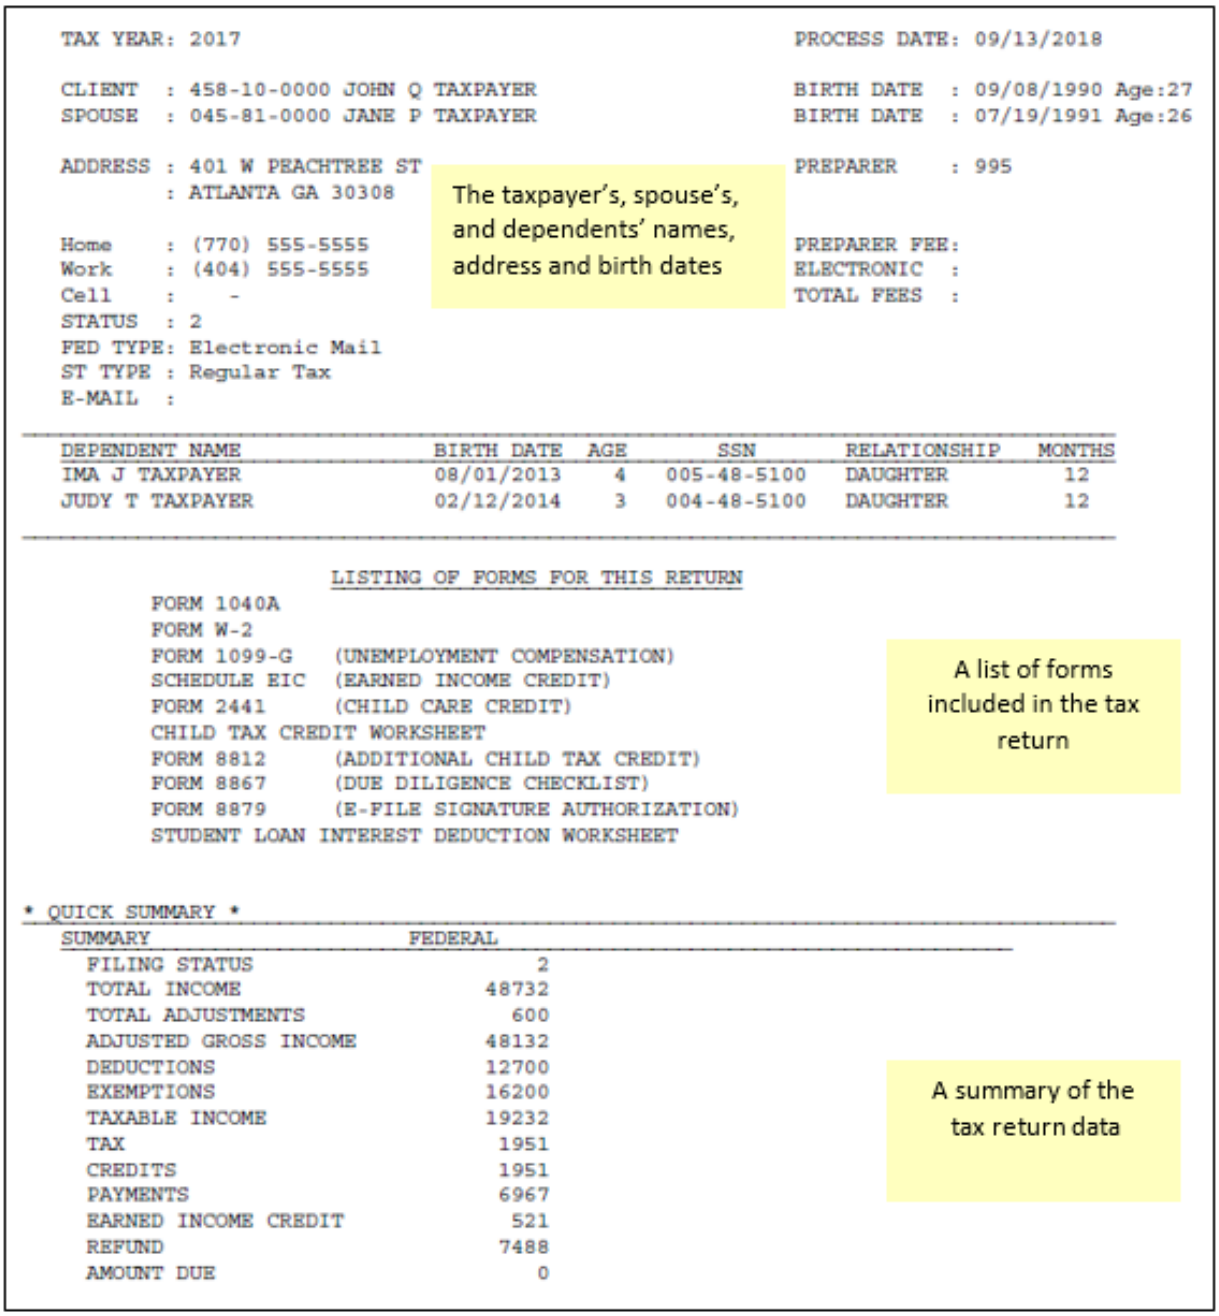

And then the Quality Review Print Set tax return will open.

Performing a Quality Review Using TaxSlayer's Quality Review Print Set

In addition to the tax return, the Quality Review Print Set includes worksheets used to complete the tax return.

A quick summary is also included in the Quality Review Print Set and contains the total amounts from the tax return. The Quality Review Print Set also contains other pages which can help with your review, including the Client Sheet. The Client Sheet will allow you to determine if the taxpayer, spouse, and dependent information was entered correctly.

A summary of the tax return data

For the purposes of illustrating the Quality Review Process, a sample 2017 tax return is used. The return has a few errors which will be used to highlight how to review the intake sheet, source documents, and tax return.

See Publication 4012 for more information.

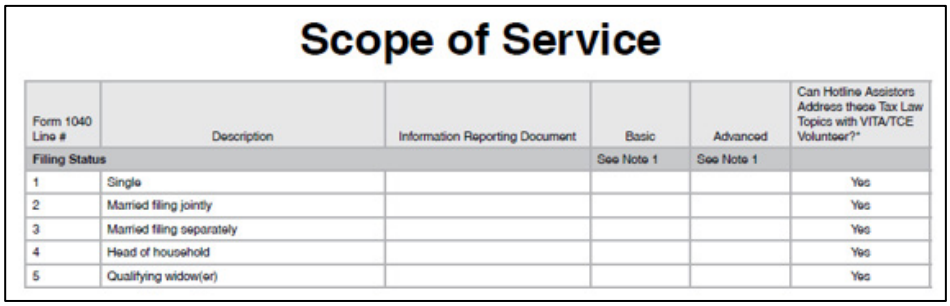

Form 13614-C, Intake/Interview & Quality Review Sheet

A complete Form 13614-C provides a summary of all information obtained from the taxpayer, including documentation of oral testimony. Any missing or unclarified information must be discussed with the taxpayer and added to Form 13614-C. Preparer notes, when included, are extremely helpful during a quality review.

During the Quality Review Process, the reviewer should confirm the information on Form 13614-C is accurate, correlates with the supporting documentation, and contains enough information to support what is on the tax return. A quality review cannot be conducted if Form 13614-C is incomplete. The Quality Reviewer must address any missing or unsure answers prior to conducting the review, which will decrease the time needed to complete the Quality Review Process.

During the quality review, the reviewer will ensure the tax return is within the scope of the VITA/TCE Programs and the tax law certification level of the preparer. If this is not done by the preparer initially, the preparer and reviewer will have spent too much time preparing a return that cannot be filed by your site. This will reduce the number of taxpayers who could have been serviced.

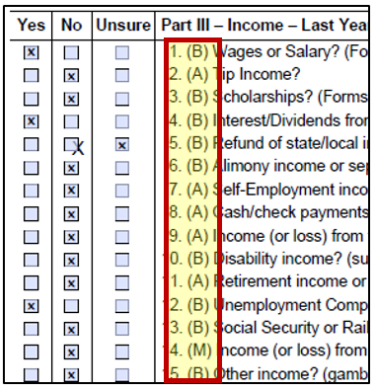

To determine the scope of the VITA/TCE Programs, use the Scope of Service Chart in Publication 4012, Volunteer Resource Guide.

Review Form 13614-C and the tax return to ensure all items included are within scope of the VITA/TCE Programs and within the certification level of the preparer and Quality Reviewer. This means the preparer and quality reviewer must be at or above the highest checked certification levels required to prepare the tax return. In some cases, this may include multiple levels. (see Publication 5166, VITA/TCE Volunteer Quality Site Requirements, for more information.

During the quality review, the reviewer will also ensure Form 13614-C is complete. If Form 13614C is not complete, the quality review will take longer because the same questions must be repeated.

- All gray-shaded areas were completed by the preparer, when appropriate.
- All questions in Parts I through VII were answered.
- Any items marked "Unsure" or left blank were discussed with the taxpayer and then correctly marked "Yes" or "No".
- Form 13614-C was updated with preparer notes to document oral statements (i.e. on Part II, Question 2, the preparer might add, "Taxpayer said all tip income was reported to the employer and is included on W-2.").

Catalog Number 52121E — www.irs.gov — Form 13614-C (Rev. 10-2018)

In our example, Form 13614-C is not complete. The unanswered questions have been highlighted in yellow. The Quality Reviewer must have a complete Form 13614-C prior to beginning the quality review. Again, this increases the time needed to complete the quality review because these the taxpayer will need to be asked these questions again.

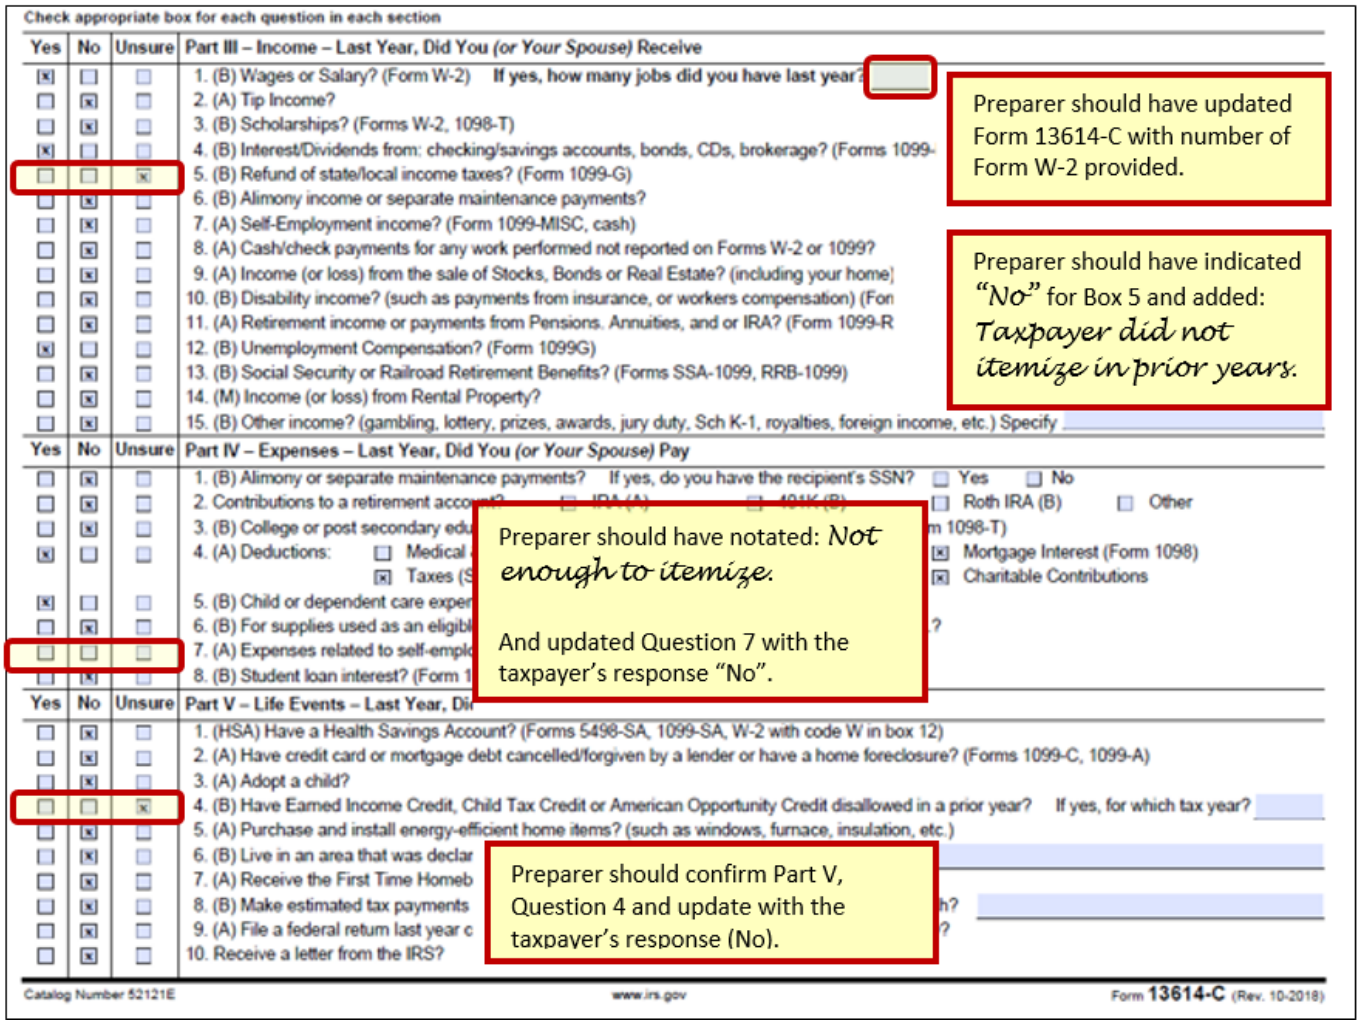

The Quality Reviewer should look closely at these commonly missed data fields on Form 13614-C, Page 1:

- U.S. Citizen (Lines 1 and 2)
- Full-time student, disabled, or blind (Questions 6 and 8)
- Can taxpayer be claimed as a dependent? (Question 10)
- Have you, your spouse, or dependents been a victim of tax-related identity theft or been issued an Identity Protection PIN? (Question 11)
- Clarifying information requested for:
  - Married* (boxes a and b)
  - Divorced* or Legally Separated* (the date field)
  - Widowed (year of spouse's death) if applicable. (Part II, Question 1)
- People who lived in the taxpayer's household (the gray-shaded area in Part II, Question 2)

* Be careful, state laws may influence the filing status determination and the taxpayers are responsible for addressing these questions accurately.

On Page 2 of Form 13614-C, any items marked “Unsure” or left blank in Parts III, IV, and V should have been discussed with the taxpayer and then correctly marked “Yes” or “No”. Preparer notes for oral statements should also be included. Review all information provided to ensure consistency. For example, if the taxpayer has answered that he had three jobs, there should be three W-2s.

In our example, Form 13614-C, Page 2 has unanswered questions. The highlighted fields show the actions and notations that need to be added to Form 13614-C.

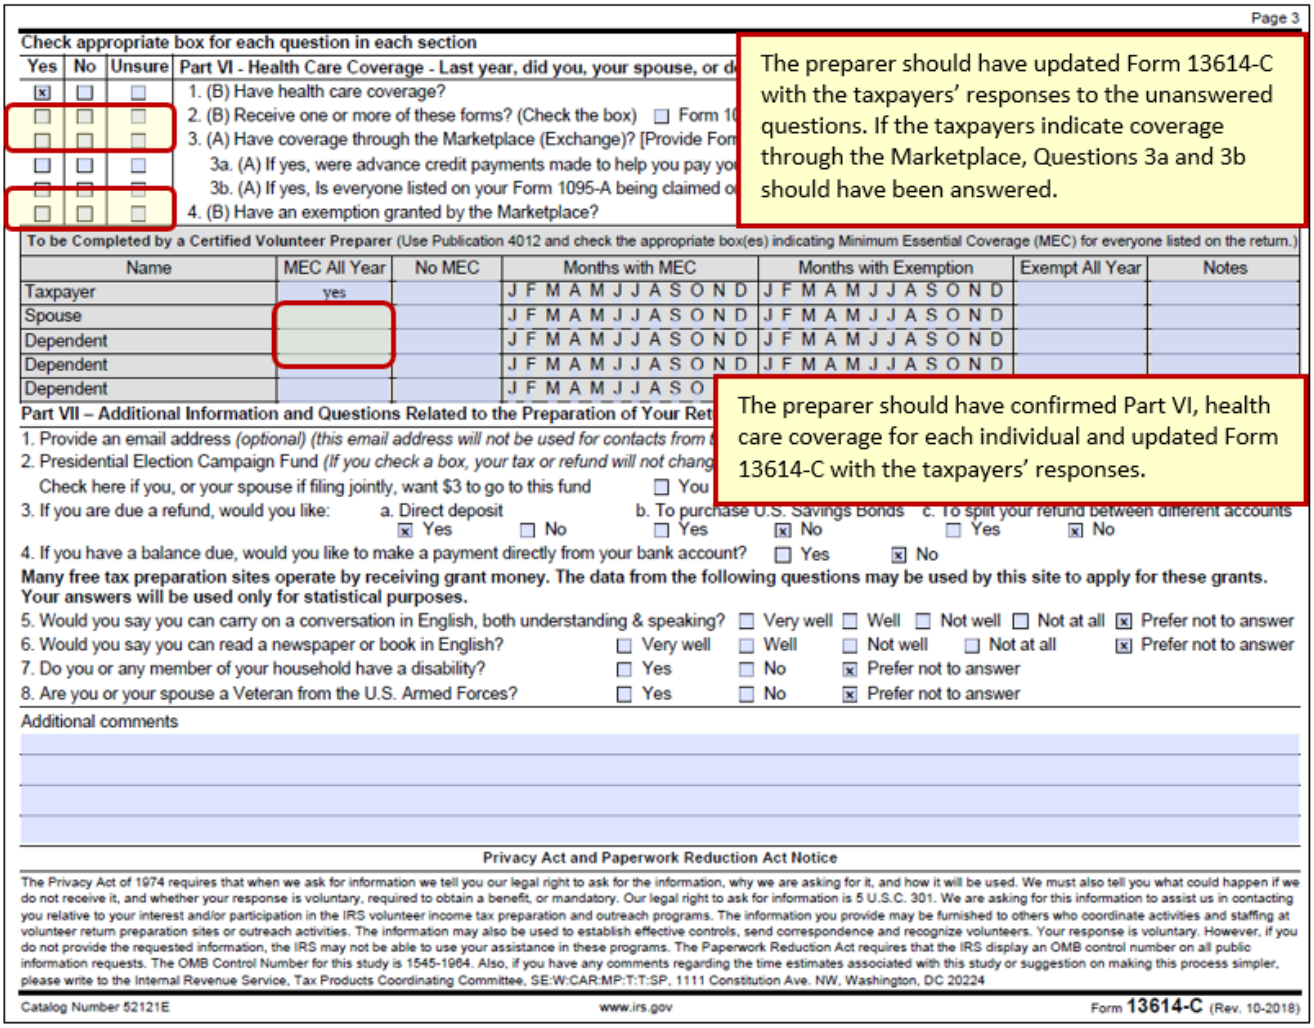

Review this page very carefully. It is very easy to overlook an unanswered line or a blank field.

- “Unsure” responses which were not clarified or updated.
- Questions were left unanswered.
- Preparer notes were not included to clarify an item such as a “Yes” response to Schedule A items when no Schedule A was included with the tax return. Form 13614-C should be updated to show the taxpayer did not itemize. (i.e. Form 13614-C indicates the taxpayer received a state refund, but there was no indication whether the taxpayer used itemized deductions on the prior year’s tax return.)

As indicated above, all gray-shaded areas must be completed by the preparer, when appropriate. All questions in Parts VI should have been answered, if applicable.

In our example, the taxpayers did not answer all questions in Part VI. The Quality Reviewer will need to update Form 13614-C with the taxpayers' responses.

To be Completed by a Certified Volunteer Preparer (Use Publication 4012 and check the appropriate box(es) indicating Minimum Essential Coverage (MEC) for everyone listed on the return.)

Catalog Number 52121E www.irs.gov Form 13614-C (Rev. 10-2018)

The Quality Reviewer should look closely at these commonly missed data fields on Form 13614-C, Page 3:

- Part VI, Questions 1, 2, 3, and 4 concerning health care coverage.
  - No indication if everyone on the tax return had health care coverage
  - Whether the taxpayer received Form 1095-A, Health Insurance Marketplace Statement
  - Whether the taxpayer had coverage through the Marketplace
  - Whether the taxpayer received advanced credit payments to help pay health care premiums
  - Whether everyone named on Form 1095-A was claimed on this tax return
  - The gray-shaded fields were not completed by the preparer, including
    - Full-Year MEC
    - The months any individual on the tax return had MEC, if not full-year
    - The months any individual on the tax return had an exemption, if not full-year

The ACA provisions can be complicated. For example, if the taxpayer has MEC for January through May and an exemption for July through December, the MEC box would not be checked. Instead, Form 8965, Health Care Exemption, would be included in the tax return.

However, if the taxpayer had MEC from January through August and NO exemption for September through December, the taxpayer may owe a penalty on Form 1040 for the months without insurance or an exemption. In this instance, you will need to determine if the Shared Responsibility Payment is applicable.

NOTE: if the taxpayer(s) answer "No" to Question 3b, the return may be out-of-scope. See Publication 974, Premium Tax Credit (PTC), for more information.

Form 13614-C, the Source Documents, and the Tax Return Comparison

Once you determine Form 13614-C is complete, compare it to the tax return. Every "Yes" entry on Form 13614-C should have a corresponding entry on the tax return or there should be a comment to explain why it is not on the return.

Review all entries on Form 1040 (and/or attached forms, schedules, and worksheets included in the Quality Review Print Set) from the first line to the last using the source documents and Form 13614-C. If the taxpayer provided information verbally during the interview, the preparer should have added that information to Form 13614-C as oral statements. If not, the review will take longer because the same questions must be repeated.

Continue the review by verifying the taxpayer's identity (and spouse's, if applicable) using photo identification.

Compare Form 13614-C and the source documents to the information on the tax return by using the Client Sheet (preferred) or Form 1040. Confirm:

- Names were spelled correctly (the name matches the name on the Social Security Card or ITIN letter),
- Address was entered correctly (including apartment number, if appropriate)
- Taxpayer(s) and dependent birth dates were entered correctly
- SSN, ITIN, and Employer Identification Number (EIN) were entered correctly (no number transpositions)
- Filing status and dependency determinations.

- The taxpayer's bank routing and account numbers for direct deposit/debit were entered correctly. You may decide to review the direct deposit/debit information later in the tax return review. It does not matter when it is confirmed, only that the information IS confirmed.

In our example, there is an error on the tax return. The apartment number entered on Form 13614-C (MS54) was not entered in the software. This must be corrected prior to the return being filed or provided to the taxpayer.

Next look at the filing status shown on the tax return. Ensure information provided on Form 13614-C supports the filing status used on the tax return.

Part II – Marital Status and Household Information

1. As of December 31, 2018, what was your marital status?
   - ☐ Never Married (This includes registered domestic partnerships, civil unions, or other formal relationships under state law)
   - ☒ Married
     - a. If Yes, Did you get married in 2018? ☐ Yes ☒ No
     - b. Did you live with your spouse during any part of the last six months of 2018? ☒ Yes ☐ No
   - ☐ Divorced — Date of final decree
   - ☐ Legally Separated — Date of separate maintenance agreement
   - ☐ Widowed — Year of spouse's death

The Quality Reviewer should look closely at these commonly missed data fields on the tax return:

- Number transpositions
- Misspellings
- Omitted apartment number
- The wrong filing status selected

Then compare the dependents listed on the tax return to the individuals who lived with the taxpayer or whom the taxpayer supported as shown in Part II of Form 13614-C. The tax return should list all qualifying individuals entered in this section who were determined to be dependents as shown on Form 13614-C. Most qualified dependents will be addressed in this manner. However, if there are unusual circumstances, such as the taxpayers indicating they are not U.S. Citizens. These unusual circumstances will require additional research. See Publication 4012.

2. List the names below of:
- everyone who lived with you last year (other than your spouse)
- anyone you supported but did not live with you last year

- Claiming someone who is not a dependent
- Not claiming someone who can be claimed

After confirming taxpayers' names, address, Social Security Numbers, filing status and qualifying dependents, you are ready to review taxpayers' income.

Next, look at Form 13614-C, Part III, Income Sources.

Form W-2 Wage and Tax Statement 2017 — Federal tax return

When you compare the amount of wages entered on both Form W-2, you find Jane's wages were entered incorrectly in the software. Income was overstated by $33. Federal Income Tax Withholding was understated by $9. This will need to be corrected.

The Quality Reviewer should look closely at these commonly missed data fields on the tax return:

- Typos/transposed numbers
- EIN was not entered correctly
- No entries in Form W-2, Boxes 12 and/or 14 entered in the software

In our example, John also had unemployment income. A comparson of the income and Federal Income Tax Withholding shown on Form 1099-G to the tax return per the income summary below, reveals $120 in Federal Income Tax Withholding was not reported. This will need to be corrected.

If the taxpayer indicates that they had any other income, review the necessary documentation and ensure the amounts reported on the tax return and/or forms and worksheets were reported correctly. Other income could be pensions, annuities, Social Security Benefits, self-employment income, Schedule E Rental Income, or other miscellaneous income. Remember, there is not always a document available for income sources.

For 2018 Tax Returns, you will need to look at the Client Sheet and/or Form 1040, Lines 1-6, Schedule 1, and applicable worksheets for income items.

Next, begin the review of adjustments to gross income and the Standard or Itemized Deduction.

If you are required to file a return, a negligence penalty or other sanction may be imposed on you if the IRS determines that an underpayment of tax results because you overstated a deduction for student loan interest.

Worksheet 4-1. Student Loan Interest Deduction Worksheet

Keep for Your Records

Use this worksheet instead of the worksheet in the Form 1040 instructions if you are filing Form 2555, 2555-EZ, or 4563, or you are excluding income from sources within Puerto Rico. Before using this worksheet, you must complete Form 1040, lines 7 through 32, plus any amount to be entered on the dotted line next to line 36.

1.	Enter the total interest you paid in 2017 on qualified student loans. Don't enter more than $2,500	1. 600
2.	Enter the amount from Form 1040, line 22	2. 48732

Use Worksheet 4-1 to determine if the correct amount was included on the tax return.

The Quality Reviewer should make the annotation on Form 13614-C to include this deduction. Making the annotation provides a record of the items that impact the tax return.

Form 13614-C should indicate what to look for on the tax return if the taxpayer had other expenses to Adjusted Gross Income, Review the documentation to ensure the amounts reported on the tax return are correct.

For 2018 Tax Returns, you will need to look at Form 1040, Line 7 and Schedule 1, and any applicable worksheets for any Adjustments to Income.

The preparer correctly used the Standard Deduction instead of Itemized Deduction.

During quality review, ask questions about what information does or does not appear on the tax return:

- Was the correct and the most advantageous filing status used?
- Does the taxpayer have any other income, expense, or Federal Income Tax Withholding omitted from the intake sheet or tax documents?
- Is the taxpayer eligible for any credits such as Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC), Child Tax Credit (CTC), Additional Child Tax Credit (ACTC), Education Credits, or the Retirement Savings Contribution Credit?

The reviewer should ask if the taxpayer(s) have any questions prior to the completion of the quality review. In addition, the reviewer should conduct a quick comparison of the prior year's tax return, if available, to ensure nothing was overlooked or omitted.

During the Quality Review Process, the reviewer should look closely for these common errors:

- Transposed Numbers
- Omitted income
- Omitted Federal IncomeTax Withholding
- Incorrect tax law determinations

Any errors identified or an incomplete Form 13614-C must be discussed with the preparer and thoroughly explained. Remember, this is a learning opportunity, not a "Gotcha" moment.

The Quality Review Process also includes ensuring the taxpayer knows they are responsible for the information on their tax return. If the Quality Reviewer does not do this, another volunteer at the site must do so prior to the taxpayer(s) leaving with the completed tax return.

For 2018 Tax Returns, you will need to look at Form 1040:

- Line 14 and Schedule 4, Other Taxes and any applicable worksheets for Other Taxes.
- Line 15 for the Total Tax.
- Lines 16-17 and Schedule 5, Other Payments and Refundable Credits for Federal tax withholding, estimated tax payments, and all other payments and refundable credits.
